

[Please print on your own letter paper]

Permission request

Dear [Add name of rightsholder],

We are currently preparing the following scholarly work for publication [add any other explanations/comments you wish]:

Title:	[Add title]
Author(s)/Editor(s):	[Delete as appropriate and add name(s)]
Publisher:	Hogrefe Publishing
Tentative print run (book):	[Ask your editor if you do not know]
Tentative list price (book):	[Ask your editor if you do not know]
Estimated publication date:	[Ask your editor if you do not know]

We request your permission to include the following material, nonexclusively, in this publication and any subsequent editions or revisions of the work, in print, electronic, and other versions and in derivative products, including non-exclusive world rights in all languages, bookclub rights, electronic rights as that term is commonly understood in the publishing industry, and the rights to exploit the work and derivative works in all electronic and on-line media now known and hereafter to be developed, in all languages throughout the world, including versions made by non-profit organizations for use by blind or physically handicapped persons:

[Add description of material, including full citation of source with page number]

Unless you specify otherwise, the source will be listed in the reference list and a credit line included below the material in the form of:

“Reproduced with permission from [author surnames and year of publication].”

Please indicate your agreement by signing and returning a copy of this letter. In signing you warrant that you are the sole owner of the rights granted and that your material does not infringe upon the copyright or other rights of any other party. If you do not control these rights, or additional permission is required from someone else, I'll appreciate your letting me know to whom I should apply. Please fax or mail your response to: [Add your address]

Agreed to and accepted by:

Name: _____

Title/Position: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Sincerely yours,

[Add your name/affiliation]